EXIT

Open the door and come on in,
I'm so glad to see you my friend.
You're like a rainbow comin'
around the bend,
And when I see you happy
Well, it sets my heart free.
I only wish that I could be as good a friend to you
As you are to me.

In a dream
I came to realize the purpose of people . . .

Give from your heart and soul
when it's needed,
To any one,
anything,
any cause.
Stop trying to hide
yourself.
Open up
to the world.

As I dreamed these things
I saw countless old and young faces.

They passed through
trees and time,
Like rivers and breezes
and light
Calling me to come.

I joined the faces,
 We floated into life.
 Our existence — a continuous flowing of together
 Within and without . . .

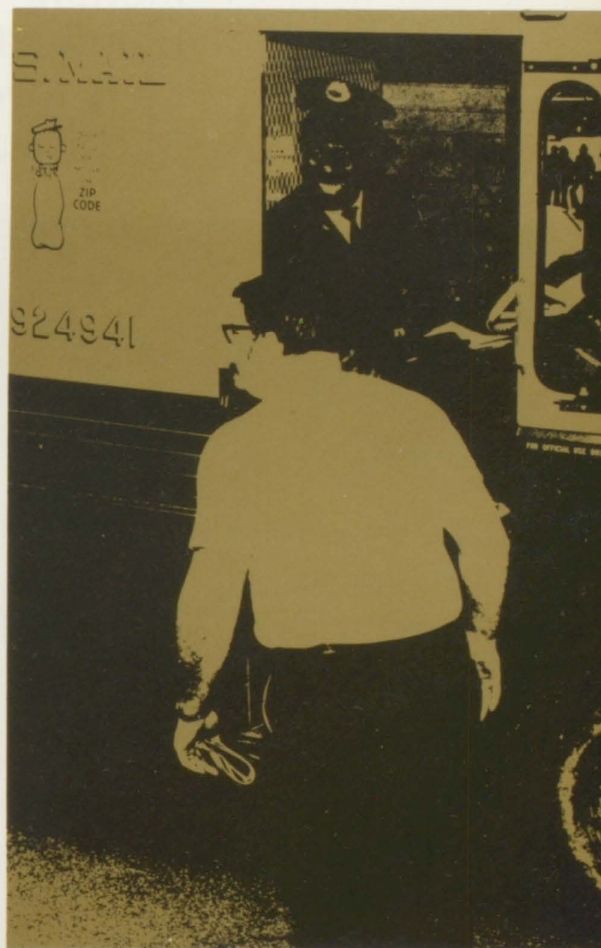

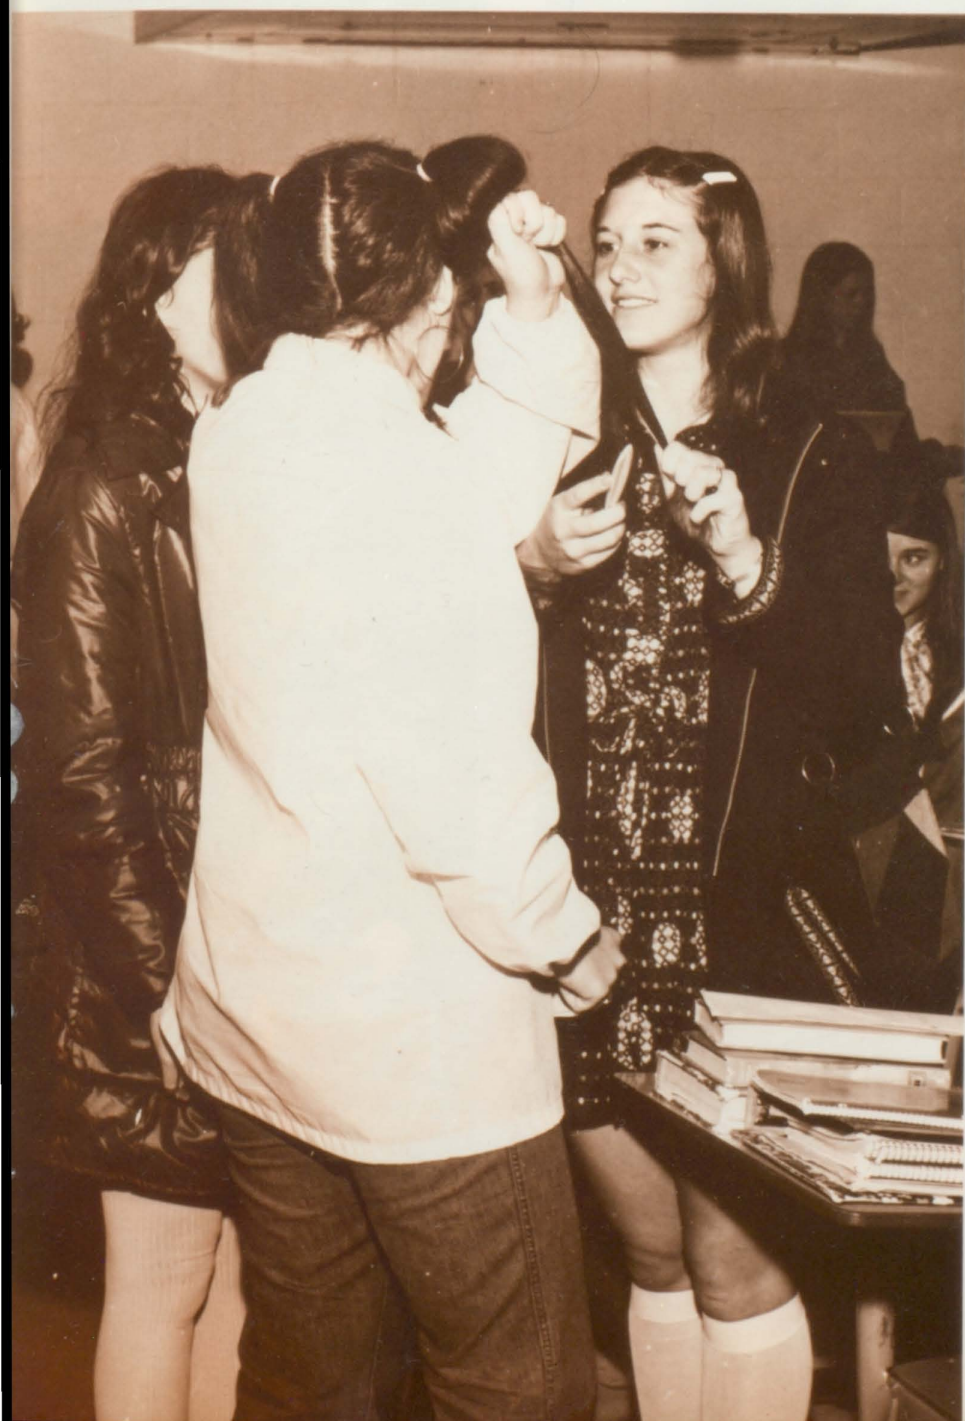

People;
laughing,
smiling,
caring,
Friends.

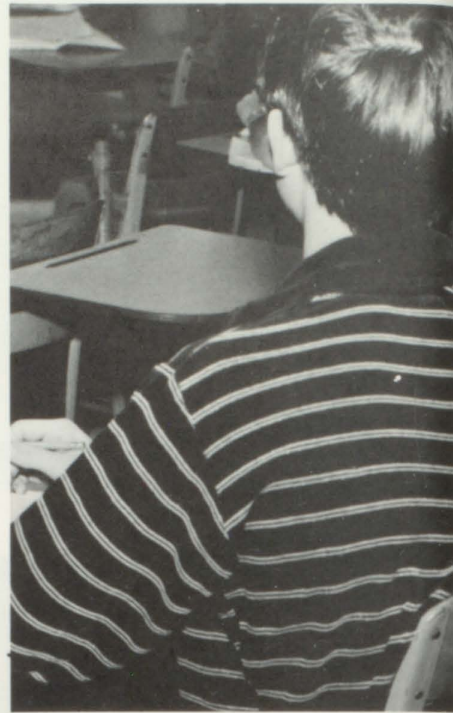

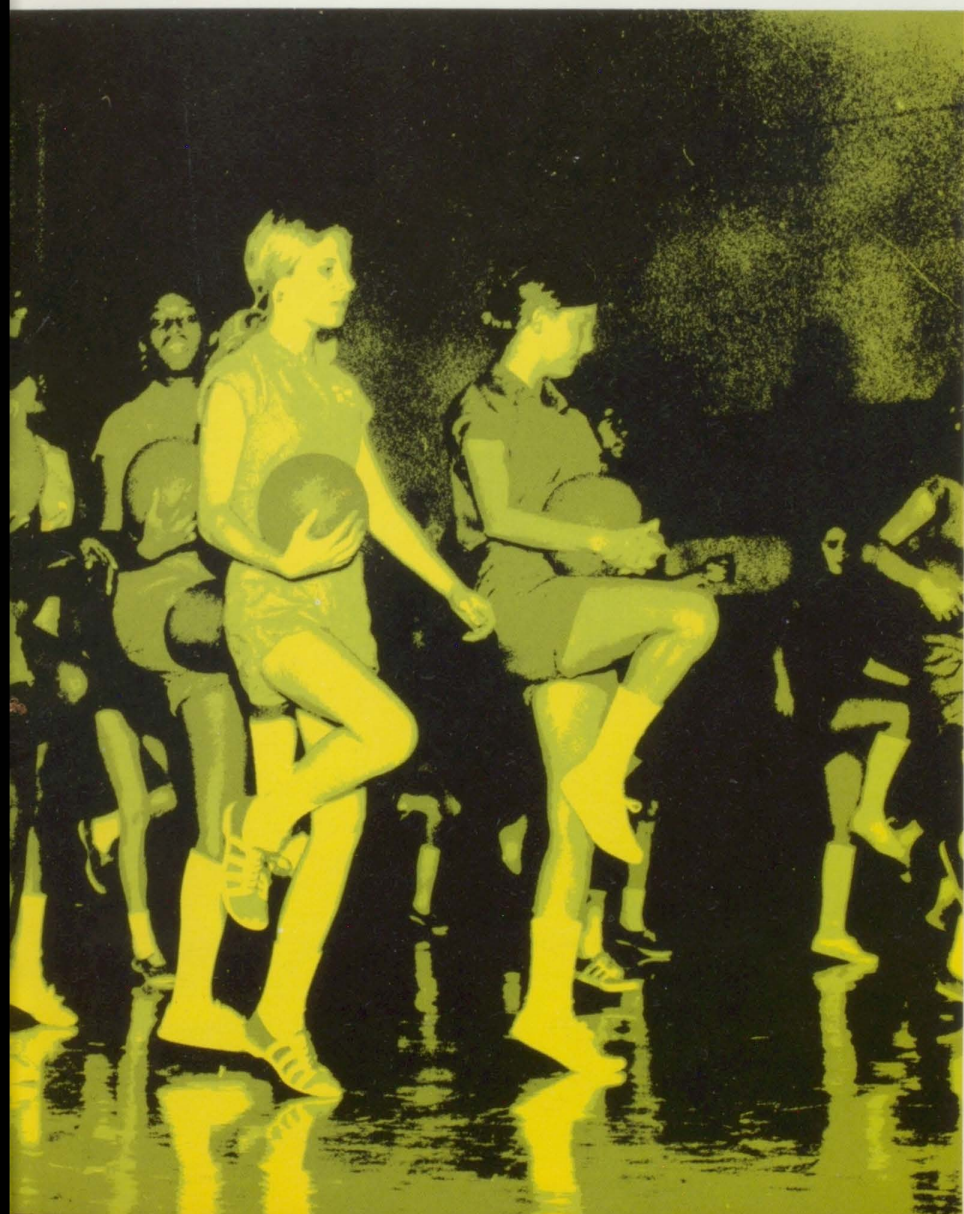

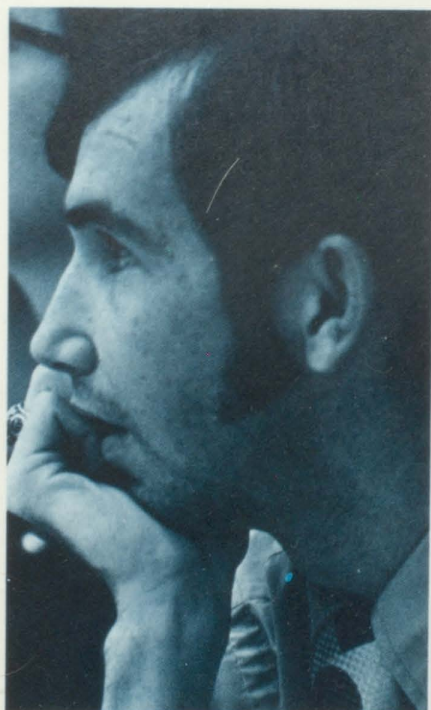

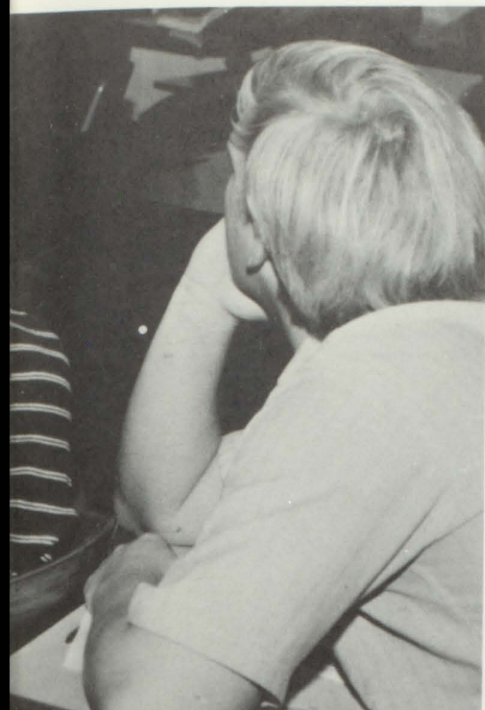

Friends,
I saw all kinds in my dream.
Friends,
Because it was so simple . . .

to try,
to need,
to be,
Friends

No one seemed alone.
No chains of fear stopped their motion
Hate had neither phase or form
Only love and living,
Moving and growing.

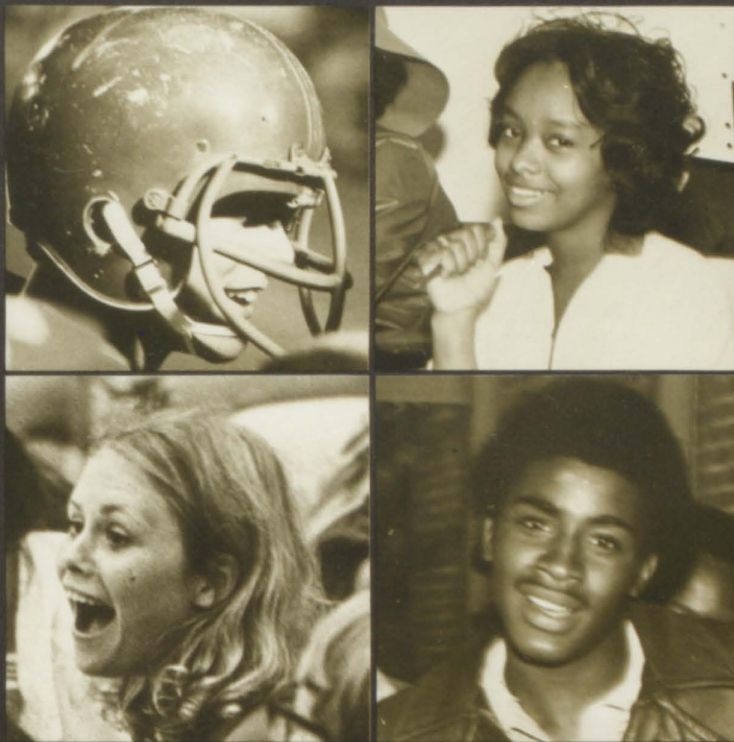

I give you my dream of life and
friends
With time,
We'll understand
it's beginning to come true.

amy

ORGANIZATIONS

It seems we're together now much more than we were before.

You know that we paid the price,
But the treatment was worth the cure.

I may not say anything that everybody doesn't already know,

But sometimes it's getting it out that gets you where you want to go.

CHORUS

Through music one enters a world of beauty, expresses his inmost self, tastes the joy of creating, widens his sympathies, develops his mind, soothes and refines his spirit, and adds grace to his body. Music surrounds, interprets and colors all the experiences of life. It is the part and parcel of all that has lived, and all the living that will ever be. Through music we have the pleasure of creating as well as giving.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Just like a child,
got to set your heart to believin',
but you don't even try,
to let yourself believe what you're feelin'.
So I'll hold out my hand,
and I'll be your friend — you don't have to be mine.
And I'll try and I'll try,
and try it again,
To get you to open your eyes.

My window looks out over the park.
Every year I've moved another story up,
till now I'm almost close enough to the roof of the sky to touch it.

I could even move the clouds
aside
but no clouds come.
If they did I'd welcome them,
for I have few visitors here
any more.

There must be roads somewhere,
highways I haven't found.
Something more than clouds
out beyond the window . . .

PREPARATION . . .

Juniors find themselves faced with endless batteries of standardized tests. They fill in numbers, blacken boxes, and mark the best choices. This prepares them, they are told, for the year to come. They wonder. Then comes the day when they open the little boxes and see the red and gold rings with their initials engraved. They wonder no longer.

I need time to find out
Where I'm goin'.
I need people to show me
Where I've been
I know the answer
and it feels good
just knowin'.
It's my friends who
show me
Who I am.

W. I. Pillmore

Pick your own direction,
Make your own pace,
But remember . . .
There's a whole world
around you,
Full of different directions and paces.
And though you may never be the same in your living,
You will never be alone.
